Annual Ashlawn Court Memberships are authorized by the Board of Directors of the Lake Monticello Owners' Association. The following regulations and policies apply to an Annual Court Membership.

DEFINITION

Ashlawn Memberships are established by the Board of Directors to provide court privileges at a fixed pre-paid fee.

APPLICATION FOR ASHLAWN COURT MEMBERSHIPS

Applications for Court Memberships are available at the Administration Office and at the Association's website www.LMOAVoice.org. Acceptance of the application is subject to the member being in good standing.

PRIVILEGES AND OBLIGATIONS

Court members are to abide by all LMOA Policies and Rules and Regulations pertaining to the courts established by the Board of Directors.

Members shall be responsible for all debts and acts by their spouse, dependent children and guests. Membership accounts must remain current.

RESTRICTIONS

When a membership is issued the conditions MAY NOT be set aside or changed. When applicable, refunds may be granted (see REFUNDS below). If a member account is past due, court privileges will be suspended until such time the account is current.

SUSPENSION OF MEMBERSHIP

The failure of an Ashlawn Member to comply with LMOA Rules and Regulations may result in temporary suspension of the courts membership.

REFUNDS/CANCELLATIONS

Refunds and cancellations will be issued in accordance with LMOA Policy 18.02. Refunds will not be considered if a membership is suspended, if the member no longer wishes to utilize the membership, or if the member moves from Lake Monticello.
